

MACHINE SHOP.

Good place, well equipped with up-to-date machinery; business rushing all the time; the right man can make good money. $2500

TROUT POND.

We have a good 106 acre lot, well located, ten miles from St. Johnsbury; with a first class pond, covering several acres. The pond was stocked with 20,000 fry last spring. Wood and lumber enough on the lot to pay for it.

RICKABY & CO.,
Real Estate,
95 Eastern Ave.

AT THE 'VILLE.

"The Committee of Fifteen" are alive to the importance of getting organized to work against the liquor law to be voted on February 3. Arthur F. Stone, the Caledonia county member of the Committee of Fifteen, has issued a call for a meeting to be held at St. Johnsbury, Pythian Hall, next Wednesday afternoon. The call urges the attendance of all in favor of a no vote. We hope this town will be represented at this meeting. Let us organize here at home, using our best efforts to get every man to the polls. Caledonia county is alive.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church will meet with Miss Nellie Pierce Thursday afternoon for the purpose of electing new officers.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church met with Mrs. J. M. Cass last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Ira Bemis who has been spending several months with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Ranger, in Montpelier, has returned to the home of Mrs. A. D. Paige.

C. G. Norris is in Burlington on a business trip.

A very interesting New Year's service was held in connection with the Christian Endeavor meeting in the Congregational church, Sunday evening. The meeting was led by Mrs. Julia Davis. Poems were read by Miss Lila Dow and Mrs. E. C. Finney. Miss Rosa Smith and Miss Grace Finney sang a duet.

The Little Gleasons Mission Band have received holiday greetings from Miss E. L. Hovey of Raper, India, where they have sent missionary boxes for several years.

Harry Silsby is ill with quinsy sores and has been confined to the bed for the past week.

Albert Beauregard, clerk for W. J. Blodgett, has been ill with tonsillitis.

Miss Hattie Down and brother, Sheridan, of Greenfield, Mass., are visiting friends here.

Mrs. E. O. Leonard has been stopping for several days with her husband at Webb's Hotel.

Mrs. Robert Pettigrew, who has been very ill with typhoid fever, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Julia Hutchins.

Professor O. D. Mathewson of Barre was in town last week.

Miss Hattie Carpenter, who has been spending several weeks with relatives here has returned to St. Johnsbury.

Leighland Parker is ill with chicken pox.

Joseph Lavelle of Haverhill, Mass., and Miss Hattie Goodwin of Sutton were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Walter Quimby, Dec. 31.

Congressman S. W. McCall of Winchester, Mass., visited his mother, Mrs. Thompson, and his sister, Mrs. C. E. Stuart, last week.

Mervie Chapman is home from Boston for a few days.

A new whist club has been organized by the ladies. They meet once in two weeks, holding their meetings first in the afternoon and next in the evening, when the husbands are invited to participate in the game.

E. M. Campbell will have a carload of coal this week, which will be sold at $8.80 delivered. He will sell it only in half-ton lots.

Miss Mary Stevens of Rock Island, P. D., has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. Hovey.

Mrs. T. N. Vail's coachman, Dennis Maloney, was married, New Year's Eve, to Miss Carrie Dunlap of Boston. Mrs. Maloney was formerly the landlady at Mrs. Vail's.

Rebekah Lodge, Juniper Branch No. 9, installed the following officers at Odd Fellows' hall Monday evening, District Deputy Mrs. Maggie Wiley, presiding; N. G. Mrs. Cora Bradshaw; V. G. Mrs. Mary P. Wheeler; P. G. Mrs. Flora Powers; chaplain, Mrs. Ella C. Finney; R. Sec., Emma Butler; F. Sec., Mrs. Lucinda Wilmarth; treas., Mrs. Ethel Spencer; warden, Mrs. Jennie Crafts; conductor, Mrs. Mima Lynn; R. S. N. G. Mrs. Minnie Brown; L. S. N. G. Mrs. Hattie Harris; R. S. V. G. Mrs. Elva Dodge; L. S. V. G. Mrs. Edna Chapman. A fine banquet was served after the installation.

The Episcopal ladies of St. Peter's Guild will hold a social at Mrs. Joseph Webster's this evening.

Osmond Cressar was married New Year's Eve to Miss Lulu Dickson of East Barre. They are now visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. Annie Shonyo.

The annual meeting of the Congregational church will be held this evening after the prayer meeting.

The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church will meet with Mrs. C. B. Dodge Thursday afternoon.

Miss Rose Smith, teacher of the sixth and seventh grades took her school on a sleigh ride to St. Johnsbury, Saturday, to visit the Museum.

The next entertainment in the lecture course comes Monday evening. The Mendelssohn Quartet, with Miss Margaret Smith, impersonator, and Miss Helen Faye, soprano, will be the attraction.

Miss Edith M. Nichols, supervisor of drawing in the St. Johnsbury schools, has been engaged to meet the Lyndon teachers every month to lay out the work for them and instruct them how to do it. Though this is not, of course, equal to the supervisor actually meeting the pupils, it is a step in the right direction.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hunter, formerly of this place, now of Newport, will be sorry to learn that their little son, Earle, is very dangerously ill with scarlet fever.

The Knights of Pythias ball given on New Year's evening was one of the pleasantest occasions of the season. Forty-five couples were present.

George Short has returned from St. Johnsbury, where he moved a few months ago. He will occupy the position of assistant in the railroad supply office, which position has been filled by Edward Earle.

Charles Emerson, who has been taking a two months' vacation on account of ill health, resumed work again last week as clerk in H. E. Folsom's office.

Miss Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Miles, was united in marriage on Christmas eve to Gardner G. Bartlett of Boston. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Kimball in the presence of about 50 relatives and friends. The rooms were prettily decorated with green and potted plants. The bride was gowned in white muslin and carried flowers. After the ceremony refreshments of sandwiches, cake, coffee, fruit and confectionery were served. Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett left on the midnight train for Boston where they will reside.

The dancing school under the auspices of the Village Improvement Society, promises to be a great success. Over 30 couples were present Friday evening and the children's class held from 4:30 till 6:30 numbered about 50. Miss Wyatt of Concord, N. H., is instructor.

The Woman's Club held a very enjoyable meeting with Mrs. L. Q. Vail and daughter on New Year's. Papers were read by Mrs. Lila Dow, Mrs. Ella Finney and Mrs. Dora Ferguson.

Mrs. J. T. Gleason, state organizer for the Eastern Star, was in Bradford last week. This week she is in Charlotte.

I. W. Sanborn still remains very ill. Saturday he had a severe hemorrhage from the nose.

E. L. Wells received ten carloads of coal a few days ago to be sold only to railroad employees. Their price was $8.30 per ton. The employees get the coal at cost and one-half the freight.

E. J. Blodgett dropped a stitch in his back last week Tuesday while he was doing some heavy lifting. Since that time he has been unable to leave his room without the aid of crutches and has not yet been able to leave the house.

N. H. Gilson, who is night watchman in the round house, has moved his family here from Hanover. They are occupying a tenement in Mrs. Clara Caswell's house.

Rev. John Kimball was called to Turner Center, Me., his former pastorate, to officiate at a funeral, Monday. Mrs. Kimball occupied the Universalist pulpit here.

A large party from here attended the dance given in Ed Harris' new block, at East Burke, last Wednesday evening. Music was furnished by an orchestra from this place.

The lecture by Thomas Dixon, Saturday evening, on the subject, "Backbone," was fully up to what the people expected, which is saying a good deal.

Mozart Foss of New Bedford, Mass., and Mrs. J. P. Baldwin, who have been spending several days with their sister, Mrs. J. P. Webster, have returned to their homes.

Idella Blodgett is very ill.

Mrs. Kate Brock has been the guest of Mrs. E. W. Hutchins.

Mrs. C. G. Norris is ill with tonsillitis.

Charles Lomer of Chicago has been visiting relatives here.

The Methodist Sunday school has elected the following officers: Supt., H. L. Parker; sec., Miss Mabel Lee; treas., J. Butler; librarian, Mrs. Lila Lee; organist, Mrs. Lucy Huntly.

Frank Thompson of Newport has been calling on old friends here.

B. T. Rainy has moved to St. Johnsbury.

Clarence Park, who is teaching in Johnson High School, was at home for the holidays.

Mrs. Wilder has returned from White River Junction and will live with her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Parker.

Fred Winslow of Bradford is visiting his cousin, Wesley Emerson.

Francis Jewell, who has been taking Charles Emerson's place as H. E. Folsom's clerk in the railroad office has finished his work and will take a few days' vacation.

Charles Kenyon of Barre is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jenness.

CABOT.

Misses Hattie and Julia Fisher, who have been spending their vacation at home returned to Bradford and Montpelier where they are teaching.

Union services are being held at the churches every evening this week. All are invited.

Mrs. Addie Smith Cummings of Hardwick visited her mother, Mrs. Abbie Smith, last week.

George May went to his home in Manchester last week.

Wesley Atkins has returned to Northfield, Mass., where he is attending school.

May Ormsbee who has been taking the place of a teacher who was ill in the St. Johnsbury schools, has returned as the teacher has regained her health and is able to be in her school.

Martin Wheeler was home from Montpelier over Sunday.

John Pike has moved to the home he has bought at Lower Cabot. Arthur Hodgden has moved to the Pike farm and Alonzo Wheeler has moved on to Luke Fisher's farm.

A New Year's dinner was served at the vestry of both churches for all who were present.

Mason Chester and Miss Bertha Osgood were married on New Year's at the home of the bride, only the near relatives being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. E. Aiken, pastor of the Methodist church. A reception was given them on Saturday evening. They were the recipients of a number of nice presents among them being a willow rocker from the Epworth League. An original poem by Ralph Hoyt was enjoyed very much by all present.

PEACHAM.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Whitehill have returned to White River Junction. Miss Lizzie Clark to Northampton, Mass.; Miss Janie Blanchard to Natick, Mass.; Phil Blanchard to Dartmouth; Miss Sara A. Bailey to Cambridge, Mass.; Miss Agnes Boyley to Framingham, Mass.; and Miss Eliza Adams to Malone, N. Y.

A dozen or less of the friends of Miss Janie Blanchard gave her a surprise Tuesday afternoon.

Wednesday evening the S. A. Club invited the gentlemen to meet with them at the home of Miss Lydia Strobridge, one of their members, where they stayed long enough to watch the old year out and the new year in.

Thursday evening Miss Dimond and Miss Elsie Choate entertained some of their friends at the home of the latter.

Saturday evening some of the young people visited a former schoolmate, Horace Stevens, at the bond factory at the old town farm in the west part of the town.

There will be a donation visit at the Methodist church, Wednesday, Jan. 14. An oyster supper will be served and graphophone entertainment provided. Price 25 cents.

The week of prayer will be observed, the meetings alternating between the two churches.

The annual election of officers for the Sunday school took place in the Congregational church directly after the Sunday school. Harlan Kennew was elected superintendent; Miss Annie Williams, junior supt.; Mrs. Hebblewhite, treas. After paying all expenses $46.74 remained in the treasury and it was voted to place the Congregational work in each family in the parish at the appropriate $10 towards Sunday school work in the state.

The Ladies' Social Circle met with Mrs. Ryan, Wednesday.

Down with the open saloon. Vermont has no room for it. A meeting for Caledonia county towns is called for next Wednesday afternoon at St. Johnsbury. The call includes all who are opposed to the open saloon and in favor of a no vote Feb. 3. Let this town be active for No votes.

GREENSBORO.

E. C. Kinney of Newport was in town over Sunday.

Mr. Woodmansee is quite seriously ill with grip.

Levi Smith is failing.

William Simpson is much better.

John McLeelan moved his family to C. C. Noyes' past week. F. A. Goodrich has moved into the McLeelan house and Mr. and Mrs. Bill are located in their new house on the Eastman farm.

Hank Talbot has opened a barber shop in the pool room at Du'u's.

Miss Florence Wilson is finished work at the post office and Miss Mary McCue is in charge of affairs now.

Several from Greensboro attended the dramatic play at Craftsbury, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. John Goss has been on the sick list for several days.

Frank Burnham's daughter from Boston is visiting him at the Caspian Lake House.

Will Jackson, Walter Simpson and Mahal Gilis have returned to their respective schools after being home for the holiday vacation.

State's Attorney Farnham of Newport was in town last week on business. It is said that he found a few parties who owned up to being intoxicated and also to giving away liquor, while others preferred to see the proof, so the cases were continued to Saturday.

Leazer Packard, who works for George Speirs, went Friday to help one of the neighbors saw wood, and while so helping the brake on the machine gave way, letting the saw start up while Mr. Packard was getting ready to put on a log. The saw caught his coat sleeve above the wrist, and before he could get away he had several bad cuts on his wrist and the back of his hand.

George Cook returned home Thursday from Natick, Mass., where he has been in the hospital for several weeks sick with typhoid fever.

For Over Sixty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Sooting Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething. It is a sure and quick relief of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth, send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Sooting Syrup" for Children Teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, there is no mistake about it. It cures Diarrhea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Sooting Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Sooting Syrup."

WEST CONCORD.

There will be a temperance mass meeting at the Universalist church Wednesday evening, Jan. 14. Miss Clara Hoffman of Missouri will speak.

HARDWICK.

Having been notified from the pulpits of the several churches on Sunday, Dec. 28, a goodly number of voters of all shades of religious political opinions, but all enemies of the liquor license law, met at the academy hall Monday evening of last week for the purpose of forming an organization to wage war against the license law enacted by the legislature. A temporary organization was formed and a nominating committee elected to name a certain number of men to do active campaign work. The report of the nominating committee was adopted and a permanent committee elected with the nominating committee ex officio members thereof. The name adopted for the organization is the Hardwick committee of Safety. It is composed of the leading business and professional men in the place. A mass meeting was also held at the Methodist church Sunday evening addressed by Mrs. Clara Hoffman of Missouri, national secretary of the W. C. T. U., who spoke on "Prohibition and License."

Shall we be represented at the county meeting called at Pythian Hall next Wednesday, looking to the defeat of the open saloon liquor bill? We say yes.

BRADFORD.

Death of ex-Gov. Farnham.

Ex-Gov. Roswell P. Farnham died at his home here, Monday afternoon, after an illness of over a year. During a part of this time, in spite of fast fading strength, he appeared at his office daily, and even drove the 22 miles to Chelsea court through winter snows. During the past few weeks, refusing to give up, he held court propped up in bed. Roswell Farnham was born in Boston, July 23, 1827. He prepared for college at the academy here, and was graduated with honor from the University of Vermont, later receiving the degree of A. M. After several years of teaching he was principal of the academy here for two years. The law was his chosen profession and he was admitted to the bar in 1857. In 1859 he opened an office for himself, and soon acquired a remunerative clientele, which increased until it became the largest and most profitable in Orange county. He was one of the first to respond when the War of the Rebellion broke out, going to the front as second lieutenant of Co. D, First Reg't Vt. Vol. He was later appointed lieutenant colonel of the 2nd Reg't, soon after the battle of Gettysburg he was mustered out and resumed his law practice here. In 1880 he was unanimously nominated for governor, and was elected by the largest majority ever cast for a governor of Vermont up to that time with one exception. During this period he won the respect and esteem of the people by his judicious and capable performance of duties, and has ever since held many offices of responsibility and trust. Mr. Farnham was married in 1849 to Mary Elizabeth Johnson, who, with three children, have the sympathy of a host of friends.

The old-home week here last summer resulted for two of the participants in the romantic wedding of Judge Jesse Johnson, 60 years old, of Brooklyn, and Miss Mary Adeline Prichard, 54 years old, of Worcester, Mass. Judge Johnson is a native of Bradford, and after graduating from Dartmouth college returned to his native place to teach. Among his scholars at the time was Miss Prichard. Their lives drifted apart, the young teacher going to New York, where he achieved prominence as a jurist and a politician and acquired considerable wealth. He married, but his wife died a few years ago, and he retired from active work. Miss Prichard's family went to Worcester, and she became a music teacher. Judge Johnson and Miss Prichard met after many years at Bradford, where the judge was the principal speaker of old-home week. The former teacher fell in love with his former pupil.

Mrs. J. H. Peters has gone to Worcester, Mass., to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Leavitt. Andy Peters accompanied her for a few days' visit.

Mrs. E. G. Osgood came Saturday night from Belknap Falls on account of the sickness and death of her father, ex-Gov. Farnham.

Mrs. E. J. Bayler left Monday for her new home in Island Pond. Her mother, Mrs. Alena Peters, will go a few weeks later to spend the winter.

Misses Lewis, Jones, Brooks and Roundy returned Saturday from their vacation and Monday resumed duties at the Woods school building. Miss H. H. Bart is unable to return until later in the week on account of sickness.

Mrs. Bronson, who has been spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. D. Avery, returned to her home in Hardwick, Tuesday.

Miss Louise Shaw of Boston is visiting at Mrs. Crook's.

Mrs. Marcia Tellers is spending several days in Fairlee with relatives.

J. B. Peckett and wife are boarding at Hotel Lodge.

Miss Alice Palmer returned Saturday from a two weeks' visit in Derry, N. H.

Mrs. Annie Lownd finished her labors as clerk in Hunt's store Saturday.

Mrs. Crook is confined to her room with a nervous trouble.

Miss Sara and Charles Parker returned Saturday to Poughkeepsie after spending the holidays at home. Mrs. Wm. Huntington and little son returned to Concord on the same day.

Mrs. Charles Richardson of Burlington has been spending several weeks at A. T. Clark's.

Miss Emma Edwards has been spending a week with relatives in Springfield.

Mrs. E. A. B. Shaw is this week to Peterboro, N. H., to visit her sister, Miss Edwards.

Mrs. M. W. Renow and little daughter left this week for Manchester, N. H., for a several weeks' visit with relatives.

Miss Frances Blodgett of East Corinth spent Sunday week at Mrs. Anne Spaulding.

Hens Should Never Ache.

Never endure this trouble. Use at once the remedy that stopped it for Mrs. A. A. Webster, of Winnie, Va.—she writes "Dr. King's New Life Pills wholly cured me of sick headaches I had suffered from for two years." Cure Headache, Constipation, Biliousness. 25c at Flint Bros. and P. G. Landry's drug stores.

DANVILLE.

The annual meeting of Diamond Chapter, O. E. S., postponed from December, will be held Wednesday evening of this week.

The W. R. C. met with Mrs. George Downer, Tuesday. A fine dinner was served and it was a very enjoyable occasion.

Mrs. Alice Dexter from Whitefield, N. H., has been visiting her mother's family the past week.

Harley Pearson's family have been very ill with mumps. Miss Vera Graham, who has been seriously ill, has been removed from there to her home.

C. J. Bell was in Washington, D. C., last week.

School reopened Monday after the holiday vacation.

Those who attended Mrs. Clara Hoffman's lecture in nearby places were intensely interested. It is a rare opportunity and all would like much to hear her again.

Rev. Andrew Bole of Coventry visited his parents, Rev. and Mrs. John Bole, last week.

Miss Roberta Gammon entertained a party of young friends from St. Johnsbury, Thursday.

Mrs. Abbie Smith of Newbury visited old friends here last week.

Mrs. E. X. S. and children are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Strobridge.

SUTTON.

S. C. Otis has been appointed by the governor, justice of the peace, in place of S. M. Bartlett, who did not wish to serve. Mr. Aldrich, attorney at West Burke, and Jason Allard, as well as the republican town committee, all recommended his appointment.

J. N. Holtham and wife have returned from Plymouth, where they spent Christmas and New Years with their son, Ellsworth and family.

Miss Fanny Hastings, who has been at home through Christmas and New Years, returned to her school at Newbury, Saturday, for the next term of 11 weeks.

Charles Berry from Canada has been called to town by the severe illness of his mother, Mrs. Moses Berry.

John Gordon has sold his farm, known as the Rolfus Frost place to Robert Pond.

Mrs. Nelson Smith has moved to Danville.

Mrs. D. M. Goodwin, who went to Manchester for the winter, has returned.

Charles Aldrich and wife have returned from Swiftwater, N. H., where they went for a visit last week at their former home.

Jonathan Stevens and wife were called to Coventry to attend the funeral of a relative last week.

The next Grange meeting will be held Saturday, Jan. 10, in the daytime. The business meeting will be in the forenoon, followed by an oyster dinner and installation of officers in the afternoon. The Grange at Wheelock are invited to meet with the Grange at that time.

Miss Sadie E. Blake, who was at home from her school at North Danville for New Years, returned Saturday afternoon.

The Henry family gave an entertainment at the Town Hall, Monday evening, under the auspices of the Grange.

Miss Ethel Chapman was at home from Burlington through Christmas and New Years.

Miss Vera Ball was at home from St. Johnsbury through Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Ball.

Mr. Stone, editor of the CALEDONIAN, and Caledonia county member of the "Committee of Fifteen," has issued a call for a county meeting to be held at St. Johnsbury next Wednesday at 1:30 p. m., to organize a campaign against the High License law. Let this town be well represented at that meeting.

BARNET.

The friends of law and order, of good morals and better homes, are appealed to by Arthur F. Stone, Caledonia county member of the "Committee of Fifteen" to meet at Pythian Hall in St. Johnsbury next Wednesday afternoon. Let our town be well represented in that meeting. The outcome means much to Vermont.

GASKILL.

Miss Flossie Skartell spent Sunday with her parents at West Concord.

Arthur Tisdale has finished work for W. O. Greeley.

Francis Parker is drawing wood for Follenberg & Peck and boarding at F. H. Hallett's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Knapp visited their daughter, Mrs. Robert Merchant, Sunday.

NIDMOES.

Prof. C. D. Howe of Irasburg spent several days last week with friends in town.

Prof. Hinkley of Lyndon spent Saturday with Prin. Waldy Davis.

Philo Van Dyke and sister, Miss Abbie, who spent the holidays at home, have returned to their schools in Manchester, N. H., and Miss Mary Gleason has resumed her studies in Northampton, Mass.

Mrs. E. W. Lawler and daughter Adine visited friends in Lisbon last week.

Quite a number of the young people of this place attended the entertainment and dance in the Grange Hall at North Monroe last Friday evening.

At the annual meeting of the Academy association the following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: President and treasurer, W. H. Gilchrist; vice president, C. T. Duncan; secretary, A. B. Perry; auditor, C. I. Smith.

Services are being conducted by Miss Brookman, one of the lady workers of the Vermont Domestic Missionary Society, every evening during the week of prayer. The meetings are held in the church.

EAST BARNET.

A quiet wedding took place New Year's at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curis Dickinson when their daughter Luella was married to Osmond Cressar of Lyndonville. The ceremony was performed by Rev